

500 drones paint Capri on San Lorenzo night

Posted on August 18, 2026 by Emma Caruso

CAPRI — Five hundred synchronized drones transformed the sky above Capri into a shimmering canvas on the feast of San Lorenzo, creating a spectacle that merged technology, mythology, and musical tribute in a single luminous night. The display, choreographed to honor the memory of Peppino di Capri, the island's beloved songwriter and entertainer who died in May, painted constellations across the darkness.
