

Exploring southern Italy at a slower pace

Posted on March 31, 2026 by Sabina Castelfranco

The Ciclonica cycling tour is bringing sustainable travel to the backroads of the southern region of Apulia and gaining attention as a new way to experience the region's landscapes and traditions. Travellers are being offered an alternative to conventional tourism through slow, sustainable exploration. Designed for small groups, the tour takes cyclists along lesser-known rural routes, connecting historic villages, olive groves and coastal scenery.
