

Davines bucks the trend on a decade of green growth

Posted on March 30, 2026 by Alina Trabattoni

Davines Group defied a turbulent global beauty market in late March 2026, reporting revenues of 306.7 million euro for 2025, up 6.4 percent year on year. The result extends more than a decade of unbroken organic growth for the Parma-based company behind the Davines haircare and Comfort Zone skincare brands, which has remained privately held since its founding in 1983. The group does not publish profitability figures.
